Part XV, Question 2

This corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, and in the fulfillment of such purposes may exercise any and all powers of a corporation organized under the Wisconsin Nonstock Corporation Law, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, making donations for charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, or otherwise promoting such purposes either directly or by grants or other activities in aid of other organizations, enterprises or persons.

- a) & b) The preferred method of receiving a Foundation grant proposal is using an on-line application, available on the Foundation website:

https://accel.wisconsinpublicservice.com/company/grant_application.aspx

Applicants will be asked to provide information such as amount requested, project title and overview, demonstrated need, measureable outcomes, and project budget.

WPS Foundation offers a variety of college and technical college scholarships to students who live in the Wisconsin Public Service Corporation service area. Students seeking scholarships should visit our webpage for the specific criteria, application deadline, and on-line application:

<https://accel.wisconsinpublicservice.com/company/scholarships.aspx>

- c) The Foundation has a quarterly grant cycle, with applications due on January 31, April 30, July 31, and October 31 each year.
- d) Priority is given to organizations that operate within the area served by Wisconsin Public Service Corporation, are judged effectively by the community, increase awareness of important issues, promote volunteerism, cooperate rather than compete with similar organizations and strive to minimize duplication of services, and are IRS approved nonprofit charities.
